Have Better Connection and Engagement with the Youth You Work With!

This event is perfect for youth-serving professionals including teachers and educators, non-profit organizations, mentors, support workers, youth program manager and more!

Juan will share his relatable, first-hand experience to provide a dynamic, interactive presentation and tools for engagement with youth in a post-Covid world in many different settings – whether you work one-on-one with students, in a classroom or in a larger setting.

Put the motivation back into education!
Keep students (and yourself!) inspired!
